End Times Studies: Discussions and Q&A

The current geo-political climate surrounding Israel and the Middle East has many people asking questions regarding the times and seasons of Jesus' return. Bring your questions and your Bible. Together, we will search the Scriptures to find out what the Bible says in order to glean the godly wisdom we need to navigate these times together.

Pastor Tom Urso, 561-312-7813
At the Church
2nd & 4th Mondays at 7:00pm

Fit for the Master's Use

Join us for a weekly study from God's Word as we focus on what it means to be prepared to be used by the Lord to fulfill the call He has for each of us. We will focus on Biblical teachings about who we are in Christ that encourage discussions, questions and comments.

Joe DiBari, 561-386-6420
At the Church
Wednesdays at 7:00pm

Christian Growth

In this study we will be exploring the topic of Christ-centered self-esteem, learning how to see ourselves as God sees us.

You were never meant to do life alone.

At Grace Chapel, Connect Groups are where meaningful relationships are formed, faith is strengthened, and spiritual growth happens as we study God's Word together. Groups provide a place to be known, supported, and encouraged as we walk out our faith in everyday life.

As you review this brochure, take time to pray about which group may be right for you. From personal experience, I can confidently say that being part of a Connect Group is a powerful and life-changing step.

Take your next step today:

Choose a group from this brochure and sign up by contacting the leader directly using the information provided or visiting our website. We would love to help you get connected!
